RADIO PROGRAM ON STREAMING

Last Sunday morning at 8:15 I listened to my own radio program, broadcast over the FM station in Springfield, Missouri. I had checked some months back and they were streaming but not their Sunday programs. Now they are.

Their URL is www.ktxrfm.com and it isn't difficult to find the program airing at the present time. In the upper right hand of the screen it shows which program is on the air. Promptly at 8:15 on Sunday morning, which is when it is supposed to be, the program Words of Life came on and the program was played in its entirety, although I ran a few seconds over.

So if you have time on Sunday morning, turn on your computer, go to www.ktxrfm.com and click on "Listen Live" to the current program. We have been broadcasting on this station since January of 1990, beginning with a 30 minute program at 6:30 A. M. and four and a half years ago changed to a 15 minute format at 8:15 A. M. and have picked up a lot of listeners. Now, folks can listen on their computer if they are too far away to get the signal of the station.

I have believed in radio for a long, long time and have been doing it almost constantly since 1960 when I first broadcast in Manchester, Tennessee at noon each day. Now radio can be even more effective for anyone who has a computer and a DSL internet connection can listen to the programs. We hope some of you will want to and tell others about it as well.
